Announcement

The Acoustical Society of America will hold its 2025 spring meeting combined with the 25th International Congress on Acoustics in New Orleans, Louisiana, 18-23 May 2025. The meeting venue will be the New Orleans Marriott on Canal Street, on the perimeter of the French Quarter.

The technical program will include plenary lectures, distinguished and invited presentations, contributed papers, and posters covering all aspects of acoustics. There will also be the traditional jam session and technical exposition highlighting the latest acoustical products.

Important Upcoming Deadlines

- Deadline for submission of abstracts for attendees requiring acceptance 5 months in advance of the meeting: 18 November 2024
- Regular ICA/ASA deadline for submission of abstracts: 6 January 2025
- Proceedings papers are optional and can be submitted at any time, but publication is contingent on presentation at the meeting

Satellite Symposia

In conjunction with the joint meeting, two satellite symposia, the International Symposium on Musical Acoustics (ISMA) and the International Symposium on Room Acoustics (ISRA), will be held May 25-28 at Loyola University in New Orleans, a short streetcar ride from the joint meeting location. On the first day the two symposia will be merged (ISMRA) to explore interactions of musicians with room acoustics (ismra2025.org).
